

TAKE COMMAND OF YOUR FUTURE!

Shadowing at John F Kennedy High School

JFK offers 8th graders the opportunity to spend time at John F. Kennedy High School. Shadowing students are paired with a 9th Grade student, attend four classes with that student and get an inside look at being a Commander. Students should bring an independent reading book, notebook and pencil.

Commander Friday Shadowing

11:15 AM: Arrival. Enter via the student parking lot entrance off of Brown Place (turn west at the corner of Lamar and Brown Place). Check-in with the main office staff.

11:23 AM – 12:11 PM: Meet your Commander scholar host and attend 5th period class.

12:16 PM – 12:59 PM: Attend 6th period class with your host.

1:04 PM – 1:47 PM: Attend 7th period class with your host.

1:52 PM – 2:35 PM: Attend 8th period class with your host.

2:00 PM: Optional Parent Tour

2:40 PM – 3:00 PM: Debrief and Q&A session with Admin, Teachers, and Students.

Shadowing sessions are available most Fridays in December, 2019 and January, 2020. To request a Shadowing opportunity, please visit: <https://tinyurl.com/y6d8saaa>

Please Note: Families are responsible for communicating in advance with their school/8th grade teachers the absence and are responsible for making up the lost instructional time and any missed work. Please be aware that your school may not consider Shadowing at JFK High School to be an excused absence.

Contact Laurentz Gilmore, Communications Specialist at 720-423-4360 or laurentz_gilmore@dpsk12.org with questions. Space is limited. Tours for parents and students are also available. Please sign up for a daytime tour by visiting: <https://tinyurl.com/y6d8saaa>